“Listening to other people’s story has helped me to understand more about people from different cultures and to really think about what I want to do to help people from refugee backgrounds. Being involved in the ARA Youth Ambassador Program inspires me to set my goals for the future because there are so many people who won’t have the opportunity to do this for themselves.”

“Joining ARA has been amazing because it has helped me build my confidence in public speaking and also to understand about other cultures and religions. I have learnt about other people that are like me and how I can get along with others. A good life comes from helping people and bringing happiness and by sharing my story I can really make a change and open up someone’s life.”
